

Web link:

<http://content.magicbricks.com/property-news/delhi-ncr-real-estate-news/builders-body-to-ensure-proper-rera-implementation-in-ncr-president/93519.html>

Builder's body to ensure proper RERA implementation in NCR: President

Editor | July 28, 2017 @ 02:18 PM

Delhi/NCR

The NCR chapter of builder's body Confederation of Real Estate Developers Associations of India (CREDAI) will ensure that the real estate regulatory Act (RERA) is being implemented and consumer grievances redressal forum works efficiently, according to its newly elected president Pankaj Bajaj.

Bajaj, who is also the Managing Director of Eldeco Group, also said the new leadership team will work closely with the government to help achieve objectives such as 'Housing for all by 2022' and '100 Smart Cities' and ensure transparency at all levels.

"We will also embrace skill development, cleanliness and labour welfare as abiding commitments. We will work in tandem with CREDAI National to bring its manifesto to fruition including skill development programme, CSR Foundation, Clean City Movement, Educational Scholarship Fund (CESF), Heritage initiatives etc," he added.

CREDAI-NCR on July 25 elected the new leadership team for 2017-2019 at the general body meeting held here on July 24.

Ajay Singal of Avalon Group, Manish Agarwal of Satya Group, Manu Garg of Landcraft Developers, R C Gupta of RPS Group and Rajesh Goyal of RG Group have been appointed as the vice presidents of CREDAI-NCR.

Pankaj Goel of Express Builders has been elected as the new secretary, while Gaurav Gupta of SG Estates has been made the joint secretary. Prashant Soloman of Chintels Group is the new treasurer of CREDAI-NCR.

Sanu Sandilya, Economic Times, Delhi/NCR